INTRODUCTION

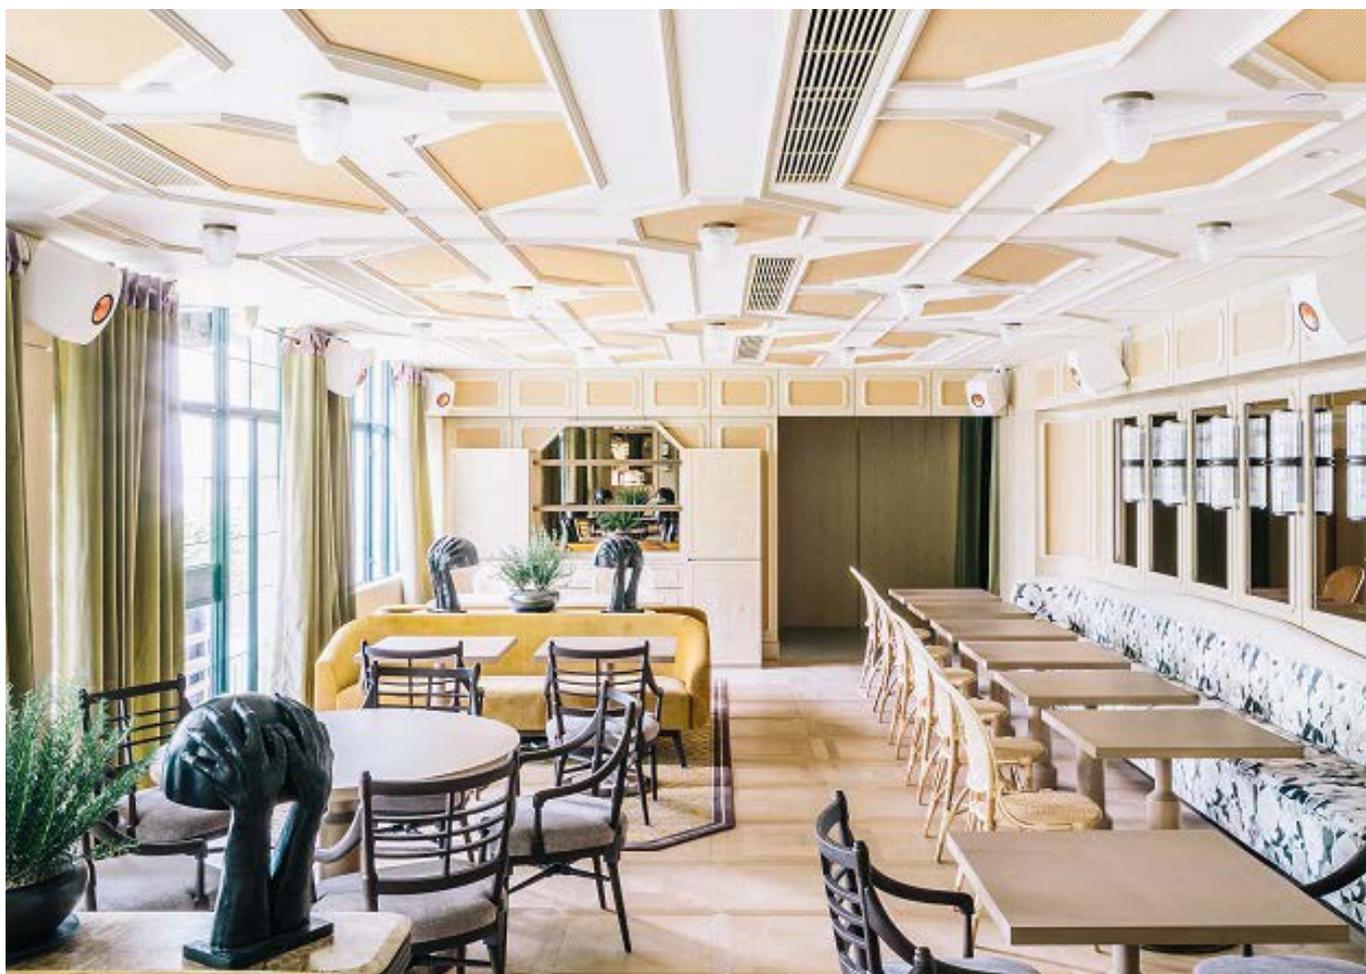

Set in a two-storied heritage house within the gardens of PMQ, LOUISE is a collaboration between Yenn Wong, Founder of JIA Group, The Lo & Behold Group and acclaimed Chef Julien Royer, who is honoured with the #1 position in “Asia’s 50 Best” and #18 in the “World’s 50 Best” awards with his 2-Michelin star Singapore restaurant, Odette.

With the same passion and focus but a different concept, Louise is Chef Royer’s tribute to the simple joys of familial love and honest cooking. Our dishes are derived from the best possible flavours from quality ingredients using cooking techniques that toe the line between fine dining and everyday fare, paired with genuine hospitality. Traditional French food, reimagined.

THE VENUE

This notion of home entertaining has been brought to fruition and present-day Hong Kong by Basel based architecture practice, Herzog & de Meuron and local design talent Adonian Chan of Trilingua.

Upon entry to the lounge, it is intended that guests feel they have entered an artist friend's studio. 20th Century modern furniture and newly commissioned pieces inspired by Ming Dynasty chairs, have been spontaneously positioned as a continuation of this idea. So too, the open and eclectically sourced bar, expansive book case stacked with design titles, and restaurant featuring multiple table styles and configurations. Floor to ceiling windows afford tremendous natural light.

THE CUISINE

Grown from a place of nostalgia and familial love, Louise's traditional French cuisine, reimagined, provides honest cooking with which Chef Royer was brought up. All ingredients are personally sourced by Royer from farmers and producers who span generations, and he introduces cooking techniques that bridge the gap between fine dining and a way of eating which can be enjoyed every day.
